

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

David Barkess
Senior Director Applications Architecture
Oracle Asia Pacific

David Barkess is the Senior Director of Applications Architecture for Oracle Corporation in Asia Pacific. He has worked for Oracle for over 18 years, and during that time he has filled a number of roles that have ranged database benchmarking to enterprise architecture design and planning with some of Oracle's prominent Asia Pacific customers. In his current role, David manages an Asia Pacific team that is chartered to engage Oracle's strategic applications customers to collaboratively define sustainable architectural blueprints for their business. David also works closely with development to represent the requirements of Asia Pacific customers in global product strategy.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS (PERTH)

Zen and the Art of Applications

This will be based on Fusion Apps information presented at the 2008 Oracle OpenWorld.